

Why volunteer? Volunteers are crucial to the success of the Bradford House Museum and Whiskey Rebellion Festival. Our volunteers share a common interest in local heritage and enjoy making history come alive for visitors of all ages. We can provide a letter verifying your hours for community service requirements.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Please check tasks that interest you.

Docent (tour guide): Interact with visitors and tell them the history of David Bradford, the House and its furnishings, and the Whiskey Rebellion. Training and period attire required.

Special Events: Set up and take down tents, chairs, decorations, materials, etc.

Whiskey Rebellion Festival: Staff information booths, help with set up/tear down and other tasks.

Demonstrator: For the festival, heritage days, and other special events, we often need those who can demonstrate a craft or skill of the late 18th Century. Period attire is encouraged but not required.

Clerical: Preparing mailers, making copies, and other office chores.

Junior Volunteers (middle and high school students) are welcome too.
