Catch the Spirit of Rebellion at the 7th Annual Whiskey Rebellion Dinner!

On the anniversary of our 50th year as a museum, the Bradford House welcomes Bill Samuels Jr. of Marker's Mark as our guest of honor and key note speaker. The Samuels family started distilling in 1783, Bill Samuels Sr. created Marker's Mark in 1953 and Bill Samuels Jr. became President of Marker's Mark in 1974 and he is credited with creating the premium bourbon phenomena.

The funds raised from this very special event will help support the David Bradford House museum, for another 50 years. This national historic landmark built in 1788 was the home of David Bradford a leader of the Whiskey Rebellion.

The Whiskey Rebellion Dinner is a Washington "must-attend" event, as we have already received over 200 reservations for this year's dinner. We hope that you will join our sponsors Maker's Mark, NSA Security Forces, Observer Reporter, Columbia Gas, WesBanco, Meadows Casino, Miller Beer and 84 Lumber for this unique fundraising evening.

Be a "Rebel with a Cause" by purchasing a table sponsorship.

Details regarding table sponsorship opportunities are provided on the enclosed flyer.

Please feel free to contact Tracie Liberatore at 724-413-6463 or tracielib@comcast.net with any questions you might have regarding this event.

Yours in the "Spirit of Rebellion,"
