

Join us as we CELEBRATE the Rural Arts Collaborative, Washington School District & Bradford House Project

On Tuesday November 10, 2020

From 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The event will be in-person outdoors (face coverings must be worn)

at the Bradford House Museum Gardens

at 175 South Main Street, Washington, PA 15301

OR you can join via Zoom (see link below)

- Carm Nickens, Founder of the Rural Arts Collaborative, and Jim Denova, VP of the Benedum Foundation, will kick off the event promptly at 5.15 p.m.
- The artist, Diane Adams, will be on site.
- Washington High School art students played an important part in the creation of the mural.
- The nearly 100 ft long mural is painted along the Bradford House alley way and it depicts the story of the Whiskey Rebellion.
- The Bradford House Museum will be open for walk-throughs (note that only 10 guests are allowed in the museum at one time and face coverings must be worn).
- Event zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82251627865>

For planning purposes, please RSVP to Tracie Liberatore at Bradfordhouse@verizon.net, whether you plan to attend in person or Zoom. If you have any questions, you can also contact Tracie, the Executive Director of the Bradford House Historical Association.